No timeline for asylum hotels use

THE housing minister has refused to give a timeline for when the use of hotels for asylum seekers will end.

Asked when the numbers would go down, Matthew Pennycook (above) said: "The Tories gave up on processing asylum claims, decision-making in the asylum processing system collapsed by 70 per cent."

"So we have a huge backlog and if we are going to work through that backlog then we have got to deal with that problem in the short term."

"I'm not going to give you a timeline on when the use of hotels will end."

Mr Pennycook also said he would not provide "the specifics" of why the Home Office cancelled a company's contract to provide accommodation for asylum seekers but that "operational details are being worked out".

Erdogan slams Turkey demos

TURKEY'S President Recep Tayyip Erdogan has blamed opposition parties for provoking a "movement of violence" as protests continue.

Unrest began in Istanbul last Wednesday when the city's mayor Ekrem Imamoglu - Erdogan's presidential rival - was detained on corruption charges.

Speaking from Ankara, Turkey's capital, Erdogan called for the protests to end, adding that the opposition parties had "made the most vile and unlawful statements in our political history for [the last] five days".

MUSK SPARKS ALIEN INVASION FEARS

A LARGE glowing spiral that appeared in the night sky above parts of the UK on Monday is believed to have been caused by a SpaceX rocket launch in the US.

The cloud-like shape, which was visible for several minutes before fading, is said to have been caused by leftover rocket fuel released in space.

Many spotting the bizarre phenomenon joked that it heralded "an alien invasion".

The Falcon 9 rocket from Elon Musk's space company lifted off just before 6pm on a classified mission for the US government.

After launching into space, the reusable Falcon 9 releases its payload - whatever it is carrying, such as a satellite - to then complete its mission by continuing its journey into space.

The rocket then turns back around towards Earth. And as it does so, it ejects any leftover fuel - which freezes instantly, due to the altitude, in a spiral pattern caused by the rocket's movement.

Visible

Light is then reflected off the frozen fuel, making it visible from Earth.

The glowing swirl was photographed in England and Wales, and was also seen in many parts of Europe.

Journo sent classified US strike plans

THE Trump administration is facing uproar after the White House confirmed a journalist had been accidentally added to a group chat in which US national security officials planned a military strike in Yemen.

The Atlantic mag's Jeffrey Goldberg reported that he had been added to a Signal message group which apparently included Vice-President JD Vance and Defence Secretary Pete Hegseth.

He said he had seen classified military plans for US strikes on Houthi rebels, including weapons packages, targets and timing, just two hours before the bombs struck.

The report sparked a firestorm of criticism from opposition Democrats and concerns among several Republicans.

Goldberg said he had been added to the message chain, apparently by accident, after receiving a connection request from someone who appeared to be White House National Security Advisor Michael Waltz.

President Trump (above) said on Monday he was not aware of the Atlantic article.

Drunk RAF pair vandalised bear

TWO RAF engineers have admitted breaking a new Paddington Bear statue in half and ripping it off its display, before stealing it.

Daniel Heath, 22, of Oakhall Park, Thornton, West Yorks, and William Lawrence, 22, of Enderby, Leics, both admitted criminal damage.

The statue, in Newbury, Berks, was damaged before being stolen at around 2am on March 2, Reading Magistrates' Court heard.

The defendants, who are both RAF engineers, committed the offence while drunk on a night out, prosecutor Jamie Renuka told the court.

The pair have been ordered to carry out unpaid work and pay £275 for repairs.

EMERGENCY BUDGET IS CHANCELLOR'S 'LAST CHANCE'

ROLLING DICE: Rachel Reeves

THE Chancellor will give an update on her plans for the UK economy and an economic forecast when she makes her Spring Statement today.

And with Rachel Reeves fighting for her political life, it's likely that the statement will be a career-defining final rolling of the dice.

Faced with collapsing economic confidence and after a string of hugely-unpopular decisions, Reeves has a -11 per cent approval rating among Labour Party members.

Mocked

In the country as a whole, she's even more unpopular - widely mocked as "Rachel from Accounts" after she embellished her CV, or "Rachel Thieves" for axing the pensioners' winter fuel allowance.

The Chancellor has previously ruled out further tax rises, but faces difficult choices because of the recent performance of the UK economy and other major world events.

Reeves has committed to one major economic event each year - the

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Budget. And as a result, Government sources have been keen to stress the Spring Statement is not a major financial event, though the Tories have described it as an "emergency Budget".

Reeves has ruled out "tax and spend" policies, signalling that she will neither raise taxes nor Government budgets.

However, with the Government under pressure over its finances, she is expected to announce spending cuts and some big changes aimed at saving money have already been announced.

Spending cuts aimed at making savings of £5 billion per year by 2030 from the welfare bill were outlined last week.

Policies include stricter tests for personal independence payments, affecting hundreds of thousands of claimants, and a freeze on incapacity benefits.

More detail on the impact of the cuts are expected today. The Chancellor has pledged to reduce Government running costs by 15% by the end of the decade, with about 10,000 civil service jobs expected to go.

Cutbacks

Sectors such as human resources, policy advice, communications and office management are expected to be affected by the cutbacks.

Signals that No.10 is distancing itself from No.11 have been clear in recent days.

It emerged that Reeves had accepted pop star Sabrina

Carpenter concert tickets and theatre freebies - leaks that could well have come from the PM's henchmen.

Yesterday, regime loyalist Matthew Pennycook knifed Ms Reeves when he appeared to take a swipe at her acceptance of the tickets, saying he would pay for his own attendance at shows.

Pennycook said he does not "personally think it's appropriate" to take a hospitality offering to gigs at the O2 Arena - which is in his constituency of Greenwich and Woolwich.

BOFFINS HAIL TREASURE FIND

A "ONCE-in-a-lifetime" hoard of Iron Age treasure has been uncovered in North Yorkshire.

Dubbed 'the Melsonby hoard', more than 800 items were discovered by metal detectorist Peter Heads in 2021 in two ditches near the village of the same name.

After Mr Heads had reported the location to the proper authorities, the head of archaeology at Durham University, Prof Tom Moore was called to the site.

He said it was quickly clear that the find was a "once-in-a-lifetime discovery".

Prof Moore added: "The Melsonby hoard is of a scale and size that is exceptional for Britain and probably Europe."

"Unusually, it includes lots of pieces of vehicles and items such as the wine mixing bowl which is decorated in both Mediterranean and Iron Age styles.

"Whoever originally owned the material in this hoard was probably a part of a network of elites across Britain, into Europe and even the Roman world."

Among the 2,000-year-old artefacts are remains of wagons, spears and pony harnesses.

Wish she would do an only fans. Looks like she's got a great set on her.

MOLLY-Mae Hague looked sensational in a black bikini as she shared a gallery of Instagram snaps from her Dubai getaway with on-off partner Tommy Fury.

The influencer, 25, showed off her amazing figure in the snap as she beamed for a photo on the beach.

Despite Molly and Tommy not yet publicly confirming they're back together, some fans noticed what looks like the boxer's reflection in one picture of Molly and their daughter Bambi at a restaurant.

The couple's little girl was seen cuddling Molly at the dinner table while Tommy snapped the pic in the busy restaurant.

Fans quickly took to the comments to point out that Tommy was in one of the pictures as they zoomed in.

They wrote: "Tommy's in the reflection taking the pic. Good for them – nothing wrong with trying once to rebuild their unit."

A close friend said: "Molly-Mae is not judging people who do OnlyFans but this is certainly not something she would ever do."

Solar power struggle over forced labour

ED Miliband has been accused of turning a blind eye to slavery – over solar panel plans.

MPs have blocked a bid to ban ministers from buying solar panels feared to have been made with forced labour.

Peers had sought to stop taxpayers' cash from being used to buy products from a company where there was 'credible evidence' of modern slavery in its supply chain.

But MPs voted against a Lords amendment to the Great British Energy Bill in the Commons, meaning solar panels made with forced labour could end up on schools and NHS sites.

Energy Secretary Miliband admitted last week that some solar panels bought for a £180 million project for schools and hospitals will come from the Xinjiang region China, where the ethnic Uighurs are being used as forced labour.

Cathedral sex 'was spur of the moment'

A WOMAN who had sex in the doorway of a CATHEDRAL said it was a "spur of the moment thing".

India Carron was seen having sex in the fire exit of Truro Cathedral (pictured) in Cornwall in January.

The 29-year-old, who lived in supported accommodation in Truro, and her partner at the time, 42-year-old Ryan Staffiere, were arrested for outraging public decency.

Both had been due to face the same charges before Truro Magistrates Court but Staffiere died before his court appearance.

The court heard Staffiere was addicted to alcohol, heroin and crack cocaine and had been sleeping rough for almost 20 years.

He was found dead inside his temporary housing cabin on Tuesday, February 11.

A probation officer said Carron, who admitted one charge of outraging public decency, had been "very embarrassed" and said it had been a "spur of the moment thing".

Carron was given a 12 month community order and a six week curfew by Truro magistrates court.

Heathrow closure losses row

AIRLINES have threatened Heathrow with legal action over costs they incurred when it closed on Friday.

The chief executive of the Heathrow Airline Operators' Committee, which represents more than 90 airlines, said that there could be cause for legal action if they do not get enough money back.

Nigel Wicking said he hoped the matter would be "amicably settled at some point in time" but said, "if we don't get good enough recourse and repayment in terms of the costs, then yes, there might be a case for legal action".

A substation fire near Europe's busiest airport caused it to be closed for almost 24 hours on Friday.

At least 1,351 flights going to and from the airport were hit by the closure, with up to 291,000 passengers thought to be affected.

Mr Wicking said: "There's going to be questions as to who should pay for this. Airlines have a regulatory duty to take care of their passengers, but in this particular case, we do feel that it was another party that caused the situation."

PUTIN'S £1,000 BRIBE FOR TEENS TO HAVE SEX!

POPULATION GROWTH: Putin with Governor Andrei Klychkov

PANICKING Vlad Putin is offering Russian schoolgirls £1,000 to have SEX – in a desperate bid to boost the country's flagging birth rate.

School-age girls in the western Russian region of Oryol – 200 miles south of Moscow and close to the Ukraine border – are the first in Russia to receive the dosh, if they have children.

Payment

From this year, girls in "full-time education" aged 17 and 18 will be eligible for the one-off

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

payment of 100,000 rubles – about £1,000 – Oryol's Governor Andrei Klychkov announced.

The region is already one of 40 in Russia that offer money to female university students who have children. But now Klychkov extended the programme to include school-age girls.

His amendment to a bill now extends the payments to girls in "full-time education in general education or-gional educational organizations, and higher education organizations".

Klychkov's move sparked backlash after it was made public online, leading Putin to then accuse the media of sensationalising his announcement.

He insisted that "more than 40 regions of Russia have already adopted" the changes, and said "at present, there are no girls in our region who fall into this category".

The Governor also claimed the move was to protect girls from the "controversial decisions" they may make – presumably making a reference to abortion.

"As for my personal attitude to this norm – it should be borne in mind that young girls in such a situation often make controversial decisions," he added.

"And our task, since this has already happened, is to support them, to help save the life of the child and the health of the mother."

Headlines

"Therefore, I ask you to consider this decree as another measure of social support for residents of the region in a difficult life situation, approved at the federal level, and not a dubious news item for loud headlines."

The move comes in the face of a growing demographic crisis in Russia, which has a birth rate of just 1.42 births per woman and soaring mortality rates, according to figures from the World Bank.

Russian strongman Putin has called for families to have three or more children in response to the record low birth rates, while also clamping down on "child-free" lifestyles as what it calls an "extremist ideology."

Putin's army has suffered around 900,000 casualties – including 250,000 deaths – since they invaded Ukraine in February 2022.

Brits threatened by 24 diseases

THE UK has a new watch list of 24 infectious diseases that could pose the greatest future threat to public health.

Some are viruses with global pandemic potential – like Covid – while others are illnesses that have no existing treatments.

The UK Health Security Agency said avian flu is on the list, along with mosquito-spread illnesses that may increase with rising temperatures from climate change.

Kate: telly boss asked me for sex

KATE Humble has revealed how she was propositioned for sex by a TV director when she was aged 22.

The ex-Countryfile presenter, 56 (above), said she experienced unwanted male advances at the start of her career.

Kate, who's been married to producer Ludo Graham since 1992, added that the comment was made while she was working for a director of a Channel 4 series – but declined to name him.

She said: "When I was very young, probably 22, I was working for a director on a C4 series. I was sitting with him in the edit suite.

"At the end of the day, he turned to me and said, 'Should we go and have sex?' It was slightly flippant."

Kate has refused to treat the comment as "trauma" and instead called him out on it, telling him, "If that's why you hired me, you had better find someone else."

She added: "Me being propositioned by some bloke wasn't sexism... it was just someone trying it on – you tell them to piss off."

Easter axed in 'respect for diversity'

A PRIMARY school has scrapped its Easter celebration and service in order to "respect diverse religious beliefs".

The announcement has been criticised in online comments, with one suggesting Christmas celebrations could be cancelled next.

Norwood Primary School in Eastleigh, Hants, sent a letter to parents informing them that their Easter Bonnet Parade and their Easter Service is off this year.

Headteacher Stephanie Mander explained that this was because of the state school's "respect for diversity".

She added: "By not holding specific religious celebrations, we aim to create a more inclusive atmosphere that honours and respects the beliefs of all our children and their families."

Responding to the news online, one person asked: "Is Miss Mander preparing to cancel Christmas as well?"

The headteacher's letter was shared on a Facebook group, in which someone commented: "I would have thought it best to celebrate everything, not nothing."

Pervert faces total of 41 charges

SICKO HAD SEX WITH PIT BULL

A SICKO arrested in a human trafficking probe last month is now facing charges connected to the sexual abuse of a dog.

Claude Craver, 39, was arrested by cops in Raleigh, North Carolina, on February 15 on 19 counts of human sex trafficking.

The offences happened between August and November 2024.

Court records show Craver is also charged with two counts of crime against nature between January and February last year.

Detestable

According to the warrant filed by Raleigh police, Craver is accused of twice committing "the abominable and detestable" offence with a white pit bull mixed breed canine.

Under North Carolina law "crime against nature" is classified as an "offence against public morality and decency".

Court records show Craver was previously arrested by Raleigh police on November 21, 2024, on the trafficking charges.

By BRAD CHADWICK

Craver is charged with a total of 20 counts of first-degree sexual exploitation of a minor, nine counts of statutory sex offence with a child by an adult, five counts human trafficking a child victim, and five of sexual servitude of a child victim.

His total number of charges – including the two crimes against nature – is 41.

Craver is being held at the Wake County Detention Centre.

Katie Dawson, chair of the Friends of Finsbury Park charity, said similar demands had previously led Haringey Council to insist a lack of funds prevented them from locking the park.

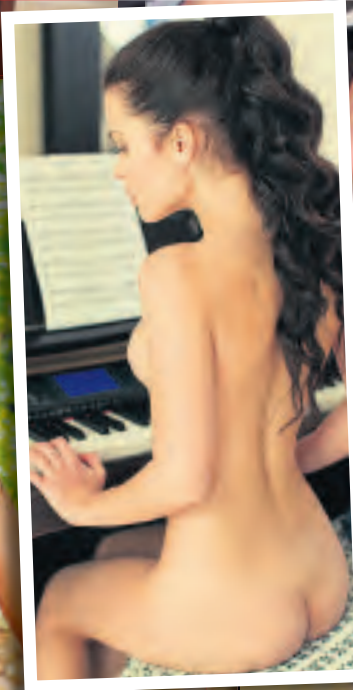

Ms Dawson said: "It's pretty grisly. It's just not a safe place.

"Crime and anti-social behaviour there are out of control."

Kendra 'put off sex' by pervy Hugh

KENDRA Wilkinson says – not surprisingly – being wrinkly Hugh Hefner's girlfriend put her off shagging.

The TV star admitted she has developed "unhealthy thoughts" surrounding sex and intimacy because of her time spent living at the Playboy mansion with the aged sex pest.

Kendra, 39 (above), told the Amy and T.J. podcast: "I went through therapy, and they looked at me and they're like, 'You might have a little bit of a sex problem. You have a little bit of a problem when it comes to thinking of sex'.

"It's just unhealthy thoughts," Wilkinson continued, noting that she still struggles "to this day with [her] relationships and [her] views on sex".

Marriage

Kendra, who became a Playboy bunny aged 18, clarified that those "unhealthy" thoughts also pertain to her feelings about long-term relationships and "not really settling for a marriage".

She added: "Which is not, I wouldn't say unhealthy – I'm saying that everyone has their choices, and some people wanna be single, some people wanna be married... and I'm more of a fun idea type of person.

"And so when those days came to an end, I crumbled so hard, and it almost killed me."

Kendra retired her Playboy bunny ears and left Hefner's mansion when she was 23 years old.

A survey of 12,000 workers across 44 countries, for property agent JLL, found Brits spend two days a week in the office on average – and would like to spend just one-and-a-half days at their desks.

Filipino workers spend just 1.4 days per week in the office on average, while Kuwaitis lead the way (4.2 days).

The Chinese have the second highest office attendance, spending 4.1 days a week in the office – despite having been subject to some of the strictest lockdowns.

DEATH FIGHT:

 By BRAD CHADWICK

A LOON was held for allegedly making threats against Donald Trump – even challenging the US President to a “fight me naked to the death”.

Kendal Aaron Todd, 42, has been charged in St Lucie County, Florida, after he allegedly posted sickening threats to kill Mr Trump via social media.

In a rambling 80-second clip, Todd railed against the MAGA Prez and declared HIMSELF the US President, according to authorities.

“Because of Donald Trump, every single person in the world is cursed,” Todd said in the since-deleted clip.

“Donald Trump is the Antichrist. He has personally made business decisions which have hurt so many different reincarnated Jesuses.”

The violent threats were quickly flagged to the US Secret Service, St Lucie County Sheriff Richard Del Torro said.

“He kept escalating his behaviour,” Del Toro said. “He got the attention obviously of the United States Secret Service, and that got our attention.”

Del Torro said authorities had recently been keeping tabs on Todd over concerns for his mental health.

Neighbours revealed that they'd recently seen cops at the home of the suspect, who'd been acting strangely for some time.

The sheriff said a SWAT team moved in to apprehend Todd after he posted the disturbing video online.

“It's just very concerning for us,” he added. “Some of the things that have happened in the past to our president.”

“We want to make sure we're not leaving anything to chance.”

Todd faces charges of written threat to kill or do bodily harm. He has since been released on bail.

Frenchies buck ‘no-sex’ trend

WHILE young adults are having far less sex these days, Gen Z women in France don't follow the fashion for not bonking.

A poll of 10,000 French nationals, done by the National Institute for Demographic Studies, found many young women are experimenting with multiple sexual partners.

The data showed 29% of the females surveyed, aged 25-29, have had sex with at least 10 different men.

In a 2006 survey, just 8% of women in the same age bracket said they'd been to bed with that many blokes.

It comes following reports on the decline of sex among Generation Z – those born between 1997 and 2012.

Jennifer (left) added: “This is far better than American Pie because people were really sad about Tanya falling off a boat. These men like you better because they feel that you went through something.”

She also described one man who asked her out years ago: “He had a T-shirt on that his belly came out of, red cowboy boots, and he was 4ft 11ins.”

“There was nothing wrong with him, but you have this idea that Brad Pitt will sweep you off your feet.”

A BROKE punter was nicked after "stealing" £100 worth of lap dances from a strip club. John Elberson, 39 (above), was arrested at his home in Apollo Bay, Florida, about 10 minutes after he fled the titty bar.

He'd gone to Reign Ladies and Gentlemen's Club in Clearwater and enjoyed several lap dances from strippers.

When he finished, he told staff he "did not have the funds to pay for the services he received" and left.

His girlfriend later posted on social media: "Forgive and forget? F**k that bullshit."

SOME people may think that it sounds awful, but I get so turned on by the idea of cheating.

Basically, having sex you really shouldn't be having is a huge turn-on.

And if both of you are doing the dirty on someone, then it can just be electric!

The danger of getting caught is thrilling.

And all the anticipation of when you'll get to meet up and the sneaking around builds the tension – making the eventual release so insane.

You have to make do having your liaison wherever you can – in a car in a country lane or a hotel room for a couple of hours in the afternoon.

I've had such animalistic, bend me over and take me now sex, including in a graveyard!

But I don't like hurting people at the end of the day.

I've never had any really serious relationships.

When I do meet a special someone I really love, I plan to grow up!

But it will always be a fantasy of mine...

Woman held as mum dies in dog attack

A WOMAN was thrown behind bars after her dementia-stricken mother was found mauled to death in a home where 54 dogs were running wild.

Jessica Hoff, 47 (above), was arrested, more than a month after 76-year-old LaVonne Hoff was found dead at the home they shared.

The OAP's body was found after police were called to the property in Colorado City, Colorado, following reports of an unconscious woman, police said.

Cages

Responding officers reported that several dogs were running loose around her body and there were dozens more throughout the house, along with seven bird cages.

"Detectives learned that while LaVonne Hoff was left alone, she was attacked by the dogs that were loose in the home," police said.

LaVonne required 24-hour care, and cops say her daughter left her alone with the dogs when she went shopping.

The younger Hoff has been booked into the Pueblo County Jail and charged with criminal negligence resulting in death of an at-risk adult, along with 54 counts of aggravated cruelty to animals for each of the dogs at the home.

Doc shared pic of nazi cock tattoo

A SURGEON has been reprimanded and fined £5,000 after sharing a photo of a comatose patient's penis - which was tattooed with a swastika - on WhatsApp.

The unnamed surgeon was treating the man in a hospital in Queensland, Australia, in April 2019 after he was hurt when a homemade pipe-bomb exploded in his hands.

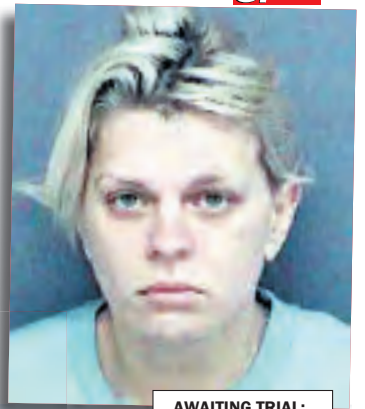

While undergoing treatment, the surgeon "noticed the swastika tattoo and photographed it", a Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal heard.

The surgeon later shared the photo with other treating practitioners via WhatsApp, which had "no clinical or medical purpose".

A notification was made to the Office of the Health Ombudsman in December 2019, with a subsequent investigation being referred to the medical tribunal - which said "the patient was unconscious and particularly vulnerable".

New charges for sex-crazed teacher

MISS MADE TEEN WEAR SCREAM MASK DURING GANG BANG

AWAITING TRIAL:
Brittany Fortinberry

A SEX-crazed teacher invited a group of teens to her home for a GANG BANG and made one wear the mask from the horror film Scream while he shagged her.

Brittany Fortinberry faces 10 additional counts of child molestation, eight of dissemination of matter harmful to minors, five of contributing to the delinquency of a minor and one count of sexual misconduct with a minor.

The 31-year-old had already been preliminarily charged with three counts of sexual misconduct with a minor, as well as counts of dissemination of matter harmful to a minor and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

She had previously worked at Eminence High School in Martinsville, Indiana, where she taught several of her alleged victims.

New court documents show that more alleged victims decided to come forward after the initial investigation launched by the Department of Child Services.

Cops interviewed a woman who claimed to be pals with Fortinberry since 2022.

She said Fortinberry would act differently around one of her kids.

The woman also said her child told her that Fortinberry had sent him videos on Snapchat of her using vibrators and engaging in sex with other men.

The minor said that Fortinberry allegedly drugged him with "mushrooms and weed, and that she would make him drink" when they were together.

The victim added that Fortinberry allegedly forced other victims to watch her engage in intercourse if they refused to participate, court documents show.

In another instance, one of the victims said Fortinberry invited a group of teens to her home and had sex with all of them while she made one wear the mask from horror film Scream.

The victim said Fortinberry threatened to kill herself if any of them reported anything to authorities.

Another student said Fortinberry was paying hundreds of dollars to students if they sent her photos of their genitals.

She's in court in June.

Captioning the string of stunning shots, the gorgeous reality star revealed her excitement to go on another sun-soaked trip, writing: "Life begins on holiday, can't wait!"

HORNY Ami Hannah admits she's quite a handful in the bedroom – because she likes to wring her guy's neck during sex!

The beauty said that nothing turns her on more than being in control between the sheets.

And that's why she loves to wrap her slender fingers around her fella's throat while he pounds her in the missionary position.

The 32D Birmingham beauty said: "A bit of gentle strangling is so hot."

"I love getting my hands around a guy's throat – nothing too hard, I don't want to hurt him!"

"There's just something really passionate about it. I guess it's a power thing."

DUNN
RANTS!

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Why life in your fifties
is so sh*t...AFTER nearly four-and-a-half years of studying the subject close up, there can only be one conclusion...

Being in your 50s is shit. Literally, everything starts to go wrong.

You can toss away the cigarettes, cut down on the booze, swap steak and chips for leaves and nuts.

Eschew tea and coffee, drink only glacier water and green smoothies, take regular nature walks and rise each morning with the sun.

It doesn't matter. Everything is still shit. Only now everything is still shit but a hell of a lot more boring too.

Sometime after you turn 50, a letter will land through the postbox from that doctor you've only seen about twice in the last two decades.

The letter is an invitation to have what is essentially an MoT, and you will do what I did, which is ignore it.

Why waste a perfectly good doctor's appointment – which we're reminded on a daily basis are like finding Willy Wonka's Golden Ticket – on a perfectly healthy man?

A year will pass. Then another invitation will arrive, and you'll ignore that too. And then something will happen.

Crunch

In my case, a broken tooth, on Christmas Eve – the result of an over-enthusiastic crunch on the hard end of a battered fish from the chippy.

Pass the painkillers. Then, because you can't lie on that side of your face, you can't sleep properly.

You'll roll over and attempt sleep in an unnatural position on the other side.

And that's when you develop an achy shoulder over there.

And now that one side of your body is wracked by toothache, and the side you're now sleeping on is affected by a dodgy joint, you realise two relatively simple things have become something more significant.

You're now in pain both ways. And you can't sleep, can't eat, can barely even drink and you're dosed-up 24/7 on Nurofen.

So, you make that call, and an appointment with the nurse is made.

That was me in January. And since then I've had all different sorts of exciting trips to, first, the nurse to take blood, then back to the nurse to be told the results.

Which aren't fabulous.

This is too high, those are too low. You need to start this, stop that, cut that out completely, do a lot more of this, and definitely, definitely don't do that.

Next you're off to the hospital itself for an ultrasound to peer into your insides.

Sloshing

Then a white, oblong box appears on your doormat, containing a see-through plastic vial that has some sort of clear liquid inside it, sloshing around what looks like a tiny toilet brush.

And that is how I found myself on Saturday night, staring down at a lump of my own shit nestling on top of a pile of loo roll on the ledge bit near the bottom of my toilet.

I'm aware there are far more humiliating places I have yet to meet on this ride towards the inevitable – the dreaded camera-up-arse being the most blood-curdling.

But having to take that stick out of the tube and then smear it back and forth across my own freshly-laid turd is not a moment to savour either.

Now, no, I don't think I've got cancer. Yes, it's just a precaution. But is it a bit scary? Sure.

And I still need a dentist, of course, and I still haven't been offered anything other than spray for my still sore neck-shoulder-upper arm persistent twanging pain.

So where was I? Oh yes. It's shit being in your 50s...

Janitor who spread STD gets 6 years

A CARETAKER who spread STDs to more than a dozen office workers by peeing in their water bottles and a cooler has been jailed.

Lucio Catarino Diaz, 52 (above), was banged up for six years after infecting at least 13 women with herpes and hepatitis-A at the Westmont medical building in Houston, Texas, in 2022.

Diaz, who was caught on camera doing the stomach-turning deed, had pleaded guilty to aggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

The creepy cleaner has already served two years behind bars but won't have to register as a sex offender.

He was arrested in October 2022 after one of the victims noticed her water tasted sour with an odd smell and a yellowish colour – and suspected someone had tampered with it.

When officers later confronted Diaz, he confessed and claimed he had “malicious intent” and that it was a “sickness”.

Other women, who drank from a shared water cooler or their own bottles contaminated by Diaz, tested positive for the incurable sexually transmitted diseases – which can cause health problems ranging from blisters to liver failure.

Passenger sues over ‘poo-rage’

A PASSENGER is suing United Airlines, claiming a pilot got him arrested after yanking him out of a plane loo with his pants down as he “took too long” taking a dump.

Yisroel Liebb, 20, was 30 minutes into a flight from Mexico to Texas when he got up to use the shithouse – with his seatmate, Jacob Sebbag, raising concerns with the crew when he hadn't returned 20 minutes later.

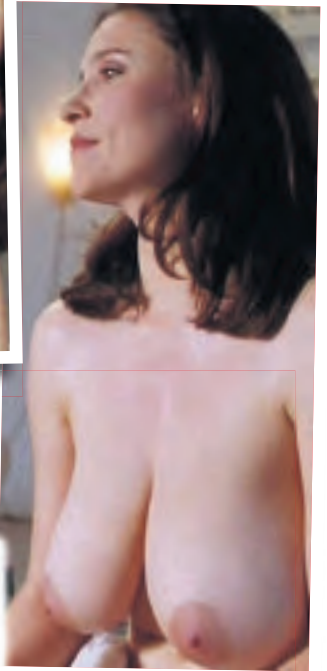

Mr Liebb told the flight attendant he was OK but “constipated” and would be out shortly.

But 10 minutes later, an angry pilot demanded he leave immediately, then broke down the door and yanked Mr Liebb out mid-dump – exposing his genitalia to passengers.

After landing, both Mr Sebbag and Mr Liebb were arrested by five US Customs and Border Protection agents who boarded the plane and took them to a detention facility inside the airport.

The pair are seeking damages in an amount still to be determined at trial, plus legal costs.

By ANNE COATES
news@sundaysport.co.uk

BOSCH fans groaned when they learned in September 2024 that series three of Bosch: Legacy could be the end of the road for 'tec.

But actor Titus Welliver, who plays titular character Harry Bosch, still has hope the franchise isn't done for good.

He said: “There's always a distinct possibility, like they've done with Jack Ryan and Reacher, [for] spun-off feature-length films. So is there a possibility of life for that character? I think so.”

“We'd been pre-planning what Season 4 was going to look like, as we'd discussed the idea that Harry, as he does in the books, returns as a volunteer detective for the San Fernando Police Department.”

Welliver promised fans should still be excited to tune in for Season 3, adding: “This season is really impactful, really strong.”

He first starred as Harry Bosch in the original Bosch series, which ran for seven seasons from 2014-2021 on Prime Video.

To cheer everyone up, here's Mimi Rogers, who plays attorney Honey Chandler in Bosch, with her MASSIVE boobs out.

THE ULTIMATE GIRLFRIEND EXPERIENCE!

Swap Messages, Pictures & Videos with Gorgeous Girls!

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Sam,

I'M a bouncer at a lap dance bar and I've had a few flings with some of the really fit performers.

I've recently shagged a gorgeous Polish girl. She's blonde and has a perfect body with lovely 32D tits and she's filthy in bed.

The first time I boned her was in the back of my car. It was after I gave her lift home when she said she couldn't invite me in because her boyfriend was there.

So I drove to a local park and had her on the back seat from behind.

She sucked me off for ages before she bent over to spread her cheeks for me.

And just as I was about to come she told me take her up the arse!

The problem is that she has now finished with her fella and wants to move in with me. I don't want that.

SP, Birmingham

Sam says...

IT sounds like a fling to me – tell her you prefer living alone.

Dear Sam,

MY wife, a tasty brunette in her late 30s, likes to shag builders. She gets them to quote for jobs and then offers sex in return.

So far, we've had a conservatory and an extension done for very reasonable prices.

She was up front about her desires, so I don't feel she's cheated on me.

I often ask her to film the romps on her mobile phone – as long as the builders agree, of course – so I can watch them, too.

A couple of weeks ago I watched as a young fella in his 20s boned her.

She sucked him off and then he nailed her in both holes before spunking on her tits.

Problem is I fear she'll leave me one day.

PS, Leeds

Sam says...

MAYBE learn how to be a builder yourself!

Grieving girlfriend is giving me no-sex grief

Dear Sam,

I'VE been dating a girl for about a year now. I'm 20 and she's 23, dark-haired, with big tits and a good arse.

At first the sex was great – on our second date she asked to go for a drive and when I'd parked up she went straight to my pants and started playing with my knob.

I was hard in an instant and she took off her top and put my throbbing cock between her lovely boobs and tugged me off until I shot my sticky load everywhere.

She also loved dressing up for sex sessions in stockings and suspenders and being taken from behind, hard and fast.

But her mum died recently and she's gone all miserable and started wearing black all the time – but not her undies, sadly.

We haven't done it for two weeks and my ballbag is bursting. Now I'm seriously thinking of dumping her. What do you think?

Tool factory beauty loves to polish my big wrench

Dear Sam,

I AM a married middle-aged man with two kids and a boring job.

I work in a factory that makes engineering tools that is 95 per cent full of blokes and the few women who work there are nothing to get excited about.

That was until recently, though. There was an old cleaning lady who used to keep our tea room nice and tidy before she retired and her recent replacement is fit as f**k. We all ogled this new bird when we first saw her. She's about 35, with blonde hair and a very nice figure.

Aroused

On her first day at work, all the lads were flirting with her and paying her compliments and trying it on with her. But she was having none of it and told them in no uncertain terms to go and f**k themselves – which was funny!

Then one day a couple of weeks ago I went for a cup of tea and was alone until the fit cleaner came in to join me.

We started chatting, she was showing more than usual and I got a cracking glimpse of her lovely arse.

Straight away I became aroused, even more when she turned around and I could see right down her top!

She caught me looking at her and I thought she was going to give me a right mouthful – or punch me in the face!

But amazingly, she moved her hand down to my crotch and felt my bulge.

Then she undid my pants and got down on her knees before she wrapped her lips round my throbbing helmet.

She was an expert at blowjobs – bobbing quickly along the full length of my shaft and even taking my entire knob right down her greedy throat!

I was about to shoot my load when she slipped out of her white panties and invited me to take her from behind.

Since then I've been shagging her at least three times a week!

I really like the cleaner, who is married with one kid, and I am now planning to leave my wife for her.

Should I go for it? Please advise!

HG, Sheffield

Sam says...

IF you honestly think you have any kind of a future together – other than just shagging each other's brains out – then go for it.

Dear Sam,

I'm a 22-year-old girl and I've been working for two months in a large office with four other women – and 20 blokes.

I've managed to shag six of the fellas already. It's not that I'm a slag or anything – I just love sex.

I had my first office jump with the manager when I bonked his brains out on a quiet stairwell.

But the best shag was with a 20-year-old hunk who shafted me doggy-style for a good 30 minutes.

But now the other women call me the office bike. How can I put an end to this tittle-tattle?

SB, Essex

Sam says...

GO easy and be a bit more selective.

Dear Sam,

I AM a 32-year-old bisexual and I've been sleeping with my sister-in-law.

We were at a party and both a bit tipsy when I confessed to her that I liked to make love to women as well as men.

To my surprise, she admitted that she had the same leanings – so we staggered out unnoticed to the garage for a bit of a snog.

Once inside, we locked lips for a while as we felt each other's breasts.

Then I slipped my hand up her skirt and down her panties and eased my fingers into her pussy and massaged her clit.

She was moaning with pleasure and I steadily increased the pace until she had a shuddering orgasm.

Then she shocked me by taking a small vibrator out of her handbag.

I was in heaven as she went to work on my moist pussy and soon I climaxed.

We've been sneaking round to one another's houses since and we are thinking of setting up home together.

But it's not easy for me as she's my husband's sister.

What can I do?

JE, north Yorks

Sam says...

LIKE a strap-on, it's a hard one. Maybe you should keep it secret.

Wife eager to nail me – but it hurts!

Dear Sam,

MY missus is well into gardening, so her hands have always been grubby and her nails clipped short.

I've never minded though, because it has never stopped her giving me loads of sex, whenever I feel horny and pester her for a bit.

Many a time I would sneak out into the back garden as the wife was planting bulbs, goose her arse and lead her into the shed.

Once inside I would push her up against the lawn mower and give her a big sloppy kiss as I undid her blouse and scooped her 34F melons out of her bra.

After a bit of licking and sucking of her nips, I would hitch up her long, flowery skirt, take down her drawers and have her right then and there.

But now she is in her 50s she has sadly given up gardening because her back started giving her gyp.

Ripping

To be honest, I thought her back would stop us shagging as often, but it hasn't – we just can't be as adventurous as we used to be.

Most of our lovemaking is now in the missionary position. But I'm still getting serviced five times a week, which isn't too bad for a fella in his 50s.

The problem is, now my missus isn't gardening any more, she has grown her nails long.

She's always passionate on the job, but she's ripping my back to shreds.

I've told her about it, but she says I'm ungrateful and that I should find it horny.

What should I do?

VK, Kent

Sam says...

TAKE your wife to a nail bar for some pampering, and save your back.

HOT-as-hell Anastasia Harris has developed an unusual fetish... for Kendal Mint Cake!

But instead of using it for energy to climb hills she uses it to boost her shagging sessions.

The 32D babe, from Portsmouth, reckons there's no better way of improving stamina than having a break mid-shag for a bite of it.

Anastasia said: "I love long, slow sex... I don't want any of that wham-bam stuff."

"I mean all afternoon, where he's in me more than he's out of me."

"But sometimes energy levels can flag and the best way to boost them is with a nice piece of Kendal Mint Cake."

"If I eat it when I'm not shagging I start to get turned on - maybe I've given myself a fetish!"

REBEKAH

SO many people have been writing in for a return of veteran Rebekah's 34C bust that the call simply couldn't go unanswered.

Chris Chisnall, 47, is just one of those who can't get enough of the Birmingham beauty, admitting she really gets him hot under the collar.

The Newport brickie said: "Her boobs are still two of the best in the business, I trust you guys to deliver."

ANNA TAVERNER

WAYNE Stokes is the lucky reader who selected the return of Anna Taverner's impressive 32D assets.

The Edinburgh-based customer sales rep told us he goes absolutely crazy at the thought of the Richmond, North Yorks lovely.

Wayne, 30, said: "She seems to have the perfect body, there simply isn't a thing wrong with Anna."

"Can you guys do the right thing and put her back in the paper, please?"

NATASHA ANASTASIA

WE'VE been inundated with requests to see the return of Natasha Anastasia.

Her perfectly formed 36C jugs certainly impressed IT consultant Stephen West, 49, who got in touch begging for another snap.

The Newham, east London stunna used to be a regular here at the Sport, so you can all thank Stephen for her return this week.

He said: "Always been a huge fan of Natasha. She'd be ideal to cuddle up to on these cold March evenings!"

THIS WEEK IN SPORT HISTORY

- 1877: The Oxford-Cambridge University Boat Race ended in a dead heat.
- 1889: Middle-distance runner Albert Hill was born. He won both the 800 metres and 1500m at the 1920 Olympics, a feat not equalled by a British athlete until Dame Kelly Holmes in 2004. Hill died in 1969.
- 1981: British motorcycle champion – and former grand prix driver – Mike Hailwood died in a car accident near his Birmingham home. His daughter Michelle also died in the crash.
- 1994: All-rounder Kapil Dev played the last day of his final Test for India. He retired with a then-world record 434 Test wickets, a total that was surpassed by Courtney Walsh five years later.
- 1995: Clydebank's former Scotland and Rangers winger Davie Cooper died in hospital at the age of 39 after collapsing with a brain haemorrhage while making a coaching video.
- 2002: England's Australia-born all-rounder Ben Hollioake died aged 24 in a car crash in Perth, Australia. The Surrey star played two Tests and 20 one-day internationals for his adopted country.
- 2003: Australia defeated India by 125 runs to become the first team to win the Cricket World Cup three times. Skipper Ricky Ponting struck 140 in the final in Johannesburg.
- 2005: Chelsea, Jose Mourinho and Ashley Cole were charged by the Premier League in the "tapping-up" dispute with Arsenal.
- 2005: The Rugby Football Union confirmed it had agreed a deal for Great Britain rugby league captain Andy Farrell to join Saracens.
- 2012: West Ham announced they had submitted a bid to become tenants of the Olympic Stadium in London after the 2012 Games.
- 2017: Everton announced they had agreed a deal to acquire land at Bramley Moore Dock for the site of their proposed new stadium, subject to planning permission.
- 2022: World number one Ashleigh Barty announced her retirement from tennis.
- 2023: Harry Kane became England's all-time leading scorer when he netted his 54th goal in the 2-1 European Championship qualifying win in Italy.

ALL THE TOP TIPS FOR TODAY

FERGAL'S RYAN TO ROCKET

O'Brien yard keeps firing in winners

FERGAL O'Brien has his string in excellent form at present and can add to his tally with Ryan's Rocket in the Breed Buy And Race In Ireland Handicap Chase at Market Rasen.

The seven-year-old has already proved another good purchase for the Noel Fehily Racing Syndicate, with the point-to-point graduate having won twice over hurdles and once over fences so far.

Following his successful chase debut at Chepstow in November, Ryan's Rocket was narrowly denied by Here Comes Georgie at Ascot pre-Christmas and he was last seen finishing sixth behind subsequent Cheltenham hero Jagwar on Festival Trials Day at Prestbury Park in late January.

The son of Jet Away travelled well for a long way that day and a slight drop back in distance on a less demanding track looks to be in his favour.

Mistress Emma is expected to give weight and a beating to her rivals in the Eileen Brough Memorial Mares' Handicap Hurdle.

The Worcester bumper winner has had to make do with minor honours

THE GOD OF ODDS

With his top Midweek wagers

on her first two starts over obstacles, but has not lost much in defeat on either occasion.

She was narrowly denied by King Califee on her hurdling bow at Newbury and may have fared better than third at Warwick last time but for a final flight error.

Victories

Making her handicap debut off a mark of 103, Nicky Henderson's charge is open to further progress and could prove well treated.

If that is the case then this pretty modest-looking race is there for the taking.

Alexandra Larose appears well placed to complete her hat-trick in the opening race at Hereford.

The five-year-old did not show a great deal in her first three outings over hurdles, but that allowed her to enter the handicap arena off a mark of 83 in the new year and she has quickly found her feet, with a narrow defeat at Leicester followed by clear-cut victories at Huntingdon and Southwell.

She carries a 7lb penalty for her latest triumph little over a week ago, which might not be enough to stop her adding the Hereford Bull Trail 2025 Conditional Jockeys' Mares' Handicap Hurdle to her CV.

The David Dennis-trained Time Interval can notch a second course and distance win in the Two Farmers 0.0 Cider Novices' Handicap Hurdle.

A four-time Flat winner, the seven-year-old opened his account over obstacles at this track last May and should be sharper for his return to the jumping game when fourth here earlier in the month.

A 2lb drop in the weights can only help and a bold bid looks assured from him.

Evening all-weather fare comes from Kempton, where Roi De France is the pick in the Unibet More Extra Place Races Handicap.

Disappointing as a leading fancy for the Cambridgeshire in the autumn, the Sea The Stars colt bounced back with a first win on artificial surfaces here next time before finding the high-class Poker Face too hot to handle in the Listed Hyde Stakes in early December.

With Poker Face having since won a Group Two and finished second in a Group One in Dubai, Roi De France's performance in being beaten just a length and a half looks very solid and a 4lb rise to a mark of 104 for his return to handicap company looks more than fair.

SELECTIONS

HEREFORD: 2.30 Alexandra Larose, 3.00 Bellas Bridge, 3.32 Night Jet, 4.07 Time Interval, 4.42 Everyonesacrific, 5.17 Jimbo Sport.

KEMPTON: 4.20 Volcanic Dancer, 4.55 Marvelman, 5.30 Fearnot, 6.00 Lady Manzor, 6.30 Sabrimento, 7.00 Roi De France, 7.30 Kameel, 8.00 First Company, 8.30 Naasma.

MARKET RASEN: 2.15 Loch Frisa, 2.45 Youdecide, 3.15 RYAN'S ROCKET (NAP), 3.50 Mistress Emma, 4.25 Pittsburg, 5.00 Uptown Dandy.

AND TOMORROW'S RACING

THE DOYEN CHIEF

THURSDAY

THE DOYEN CHIEF relished a step up to three miles last time out and can build on that success by securing a nice prize in the £40,000 eventmasters.co.uk Challenger Staying Chase Series Final Handicap Chase at Warwick.

Already a winner in the point-to-point, bumper and hurdling spheres, Alan King's eight-year-old made a solid start to his career over fences, being placed at Market Rasen, Exeter and Taunton.

He was then sent off at a shade of odds-on at Kempton and delivered with the minimum of fuss under Tom Bellamy, hitting the front three out and staying on well to maintain his advantage.

The Doyen Chief has been raised 5lb for that but is clearly suited by three miles on a sound surface and will have plenty in his favour again.

Koapey can end a frustrating run of seconds by winning Southwell's Grace & Dotty Fedora's And Feathers Maiden Hurdle.

Warren Greatrex's charge was unfortunate to come up against a smart one in The Kemble Brewery at Ffos Las in November and a subsequent runner-up effort behind Peso at Newbury received a boost when that one chased home Willie Mullins' Chart Topper at Wetherby next time.

At Wolverhampton, Mashaan is taken to complete a quick double in division two of the £30 In Free Bets With BetUK Classified Stakes.

The Alice Haynes-trained seven-year-old made light work of his rivals at Lingfield on Monday, bursting clear at the furlong pole and powering home for a most convincing victory.

Circus Of Rome showed promise as a juvenile and can kick off his three-year-old campaign by landing the BetUK: It's Where The UK Bets Restricted Novice Stakes.

Having caught the eye making late headway on his debut, the son of Circus Maximus pulled 11 lengths clear of the rest when going down by just a short head at Lingfield against Marhaba Ghaiyyath, who franked the form by following up.

December's odds-on second at Chelmsford was a little disappointing but conqueror Cabelleroso was tried in Listed company next time and third-placed San Juanito has won since, so the form may be better than first thought.

That defeat also came when dropped back down to seven furlongs, but stepping up in trip to nine and a half here looks much more suitable, as he is a half-brother to two winners over even further.

Stablemate I Maximus can be another winner for Richard Hughes in the British Stallion Studs EBF Maiden Stakes at Chelmsford.

Although a beaten favourite on all three outings last term, the Zoustar gelding's Kempton second to Dash Dizzy reads well, as that victor went on to finish third in the Group One Middle Park.

SELECTIONS

NATIONAL HERO: Intense Raffles

It's getting a bit Intense for trainer Tom

GRAND NATIONAL COUNTDOWN

TRAINER Tom Gibney is doing his best to keep his feet on the ground as he puts the finishing touches to his Grand National favourite Intense Raffles.

The Simon Munir and Isaac Souede-owned grey won his first two starts in Ireland at Fairyhouse after being switched from France – and 12 years after landing the Easter Monday feature with Lion Na Bearnal, Gibney admits hopes were high his new stable star could repeat the feat.

"I was confident he would run very well, we genuinely would have been very disappointed if he wasn't there or thereabouts," he said.

"Everything fell into place as you'd really like it to, which doesn't happen that often, but when it does, it's a lovely feeling. You could just feel that everything was going right.

"It gave us confidence that he'd been round Fairyhouse before. He'd been there twice and won there twice and loves the place – I love it myself!

"In the Irish National, he did what he'd done the previous two times there and it was like clockwork. The whole thing went very smoothly and we enjoyed every bit of it.

"It was brilliant for Simon and Isaac to send us a horse as we're a small outfit here and it kind of goes against the trend of the current state of affairs in racing in Ireland and England over jumps. It was a big shout from them and it was a fantastic feeling that it was worthwhile and worked out."

The Irish National has a good record of producing subsequent Aintree heroes, with Bobbyjo, Numbersixvalverde and I Am Maximus all doing the double in the last 30 years.

Intense Raffles was well beaten on his first two starts of this season over hurdles at Navan, but a close second to Nick

BIG CHANCE: Gibney

Rockett in Fairyhouse's Bobbyjo Chase appears to have put him spot-on for April 5.

Gibney added: "I wasn't in great humour leaving Navan either day as I genuinely did think he'd run well and was genuinely disappointed, particularly the second day.

"The first day I thought he might need the run and I was happy enough, but the second day I was disappointed.

"I thought he'd be well fit to compete there and he wasn't. I went home scratching my head, so I was nervous.

"It was a relief to see him back to his old self in the Bobbyjo."

One of less than 30 horses residing at Gibney's yard, Intense Raffles is as short as 5-1 with some firms for National glory.

Gibney said: "Hopefully he'll run like a favourite!

"I'd prefer to have the favourite rather than a 50-1 shot all day long. He doesn't know he's favourite and we just do the same thing – and if it works great, and if it doesn't, what about it."

On whether he is feeling nervous, he added: "I don't know, on and off. You're preparing for so long and I'm actually kind of relieved to get this far.

"I don't know how he'll take to Aintree, you know as much as I do on that score. We haven't schooled him over the National fences, so we'll hopefully go down this week and pop them at the Curragh."

HENMAN: DRAPER CAN BE A SMASH!

Tim backs Britain's number one

RISING STAR: Henman is backing Draper to win big

TIME Henman believes Jack Draper is “doing all the right things” and is excited about the British number one’s potential over the next decade.

Draper secured the biggest win of his career to date in Indian Wells earlier this month when he defeated Holger Rune 6-2 6-2 in the final of the BNP Paribas Open to win his first ATP Masters 1000 title.

And although the 23-year-old suffered a shock loss to Jakub Mensik in his next match at the Miami Open, Henman is full of praise for the new world number seven.

“It’s absolutely fantastic the way that Jack’s been playing and I’m not really that surprised,” four-time Wimbledon semi-finalist Henman said after being announced as Team Europe’s vice-captain for this year’s Laver Cup.

Consistent

“I think what is taking place now is the pieces of the puzzle coming together and those pieces have always been there, but if anything, it’s just perhaps been a few of the little injuries that have kept him from building that momentum in tournament play.

“That’s what I think is exciting – he’s seven in the world, he’s just won his first Masters 1000 and to me he still hasn’t really played a consistent 12-18 months on Tour.

By DON McENROE

“I think when you take a deeper dive into his game, there are very few weaknesses and still areas to improve on.

“The quality of his serving has been huge, hitting his spots very well, the power on the forehand was brilliant to watch in Indian Wells.

“I would like him to finish more points at the net. When you’re that aggressive you can bring that extra string to your bow, but for a big guy, he’s a great athlete who moves well.

“I think that’s what I find exciting for the next decade, hopefully.”

Henman has already spoken to Draper about competing in the eighth edition of the Laver Cup in September and was asked what advice he would give the left-hander if that happened.

“Jack is doing all the right things,” Henman added. “My message would be ‘more of the same’.

“I think Indian Wells and Miami are the perfect example of the life of a professional tennis player in that you’ve got the greatest high of his career and then losing the first match in Miami.

“As frustrating and disappointing as that may be, that goes with the territory. Keep developing, keep working hard and who knows what Jack can go on to achieve.

“He doesn’t know and we don’t know, but he’s going to find out and I’ll certainly be doing my bit to persuade him to be involved because I think he will be a big asset for Team Europe.”

Meanwhile, Emma Raducanu said she had “come a long way in the last week” after booking a Miami Open quarter-final place.

The British star brushed aside American 17th seed Amanda Anisimova in straight sets.

Raducanu’s first last-eight appearance at a WTA 1000 tournament was secured in emphatic fashion as she dominated her opponent to triumph 6-1 6-3.

Her best run since being crowned 2021 US Open champion continued as she controlled the match throughout.

Raducanu did not drop a point on her serve in the first set, which underpinned an impressive performance that saw her move into the top 50 of the world rankings.

Happy

“I’ve come a long way in the last week, I think, since Indian Wells (where Raducanu lost in the first round),” she said.

“I wasn’t necessarily feeling great about my tennis, about everything, but this week I have, yeah, some really good people around me who I trust and who I have fun with off the court as well, and that is extremely important.

“When I play my best I am definitely authentic, true to myself and creative. I feel when I am boxed into a regimented way then I am not able to express myself in the same way.

“So I’m happy with how I have managed to realise that this week.”

BIG PICKS: Farrell

Lions boss names his assistants

RUGBY UNION

SIMON Easterby and Richard Wigglesworth look set to be the headline appointments among Andy Farrell’s British and Irish Lions coaching staff for this summer’s tour of Australia.

Head coach Farrell will reveal his team of assistants in London on Wednesday.

Easterby took on the job of Ireland interim head coach for this season’s Guinness Six Nations campaign while Farrell concentrated on Lions business, and he and Wigglesworth are now reportedly poised for Lions roles.

The latest appointments will follow confirmed posts within the Lions set-up for Ireland’s strength and conditioning coach Aled Walters and ex-Ireland performance director David Nuclefora.

Former England scrum-half Wigglesworth, 41, succeeded current England head coach Steve Borthwick as Leicester boss in 2022.

He then linked up with Borthwick’s England coaching team the following summer, and became senior assistant coach in October 2024.

Under Wigglesworth’s attacking tutelage, England scored 25 tries in this season’s Six Nations and made 36 line-breaks as they finished runners-up to France.

Farrell will announce the playing squad for Australia on May 8, with the Lions facing Argentina in Dublin six weeks later before flying to Perth and a June 28 clash against Western Force.

A three-Test series against Australia kicks off in Brisbane on July 19, followed by games in Melbourne and Sydney.

Sale have signed South African flanker Jacques Vermeulen from their Gallagher Premiership rivals Exeter.

Play-off challengers Sale said Vermeulen has agreed a two-year deal from the start of next season.

The 30-year-old joined Exeter in 2019 and has made more than 100 appearances for the Chiefs.

Sale rugby director Alex Sanderson said: “Jacques has been one of the most consistent performers in his position in the league ever since he arrived at Exeter.

“His enthusiasm is infectious and he has always been a nightmare to play against. He is one of those players you want on your team because of his unparalleled, unrelenting physicality and work-rate.”

BIG TWO BACK FOR SARINA

ENGLAND boss Sarina Wiegman says the inclusion of Arsenal duo Chloe Kelly and Beth Mead will bring added quality into the squad for their Nations League double-header with Belgium.

Kelly was not named in the Lionesses squad for the matches against Spain and Portugal but was drafted in to replace her injured Gunners team-mate Mead.

Wiegman has named both wingers and, with Kelly enjoying more minutes at Arsenal following her loan move from City in January, the England manager believes they can “harm” Belgium.

Asked what Mead and Kelly will bring to the team, she said:

“Quality. What you see at Arsenal is they swap around a bit. They are totally different wing players so they bring something different which helps the team. That’s what I expect with them two, that we have opportunities up front that we can use and harm the opponent.

“It’s important because you get in a rhythm. What we want is she shows her qualities and she’s at her best because it will help the team.

“You need minutes and you can tell she’s enjoying it now.” Tottenham forward Jess Naz has lost her place in the squad alongside the injured pair of Laura Blindkilde Brown and Ruby Mace.

FRIENDS AND FOES: Piastri and Norris

LANDO UP FOR OSCAR

LANDO Norris has admitted his McLaren team will be “nervous” about the prospect of him going head-to-head with team-mate Oscar Piastri for the world championship.

Norris, 25, and Piastri, 23, both have one victory each after the opening two rounds of the new Formula One season with McLaren holding an early advantage over their rivals.

The British team, bidding to deliver their first world champion since Lewis Hamilton claimed his maiden crown back in 2008, have said their drivers are free to race each other.

And, although Norris has claimed McLaren are prepared for an intra-team duel, he acknowledged that there could be bumps along the road.

“We were free to race in Australia and here in China so I am sure we are going to have some closer racing at some point,” said Norris, who is eight points clear of Max Verstappen and 10 ahead of Piastri in the standings ahead of the next race in Japan a week on

FORMULA ONE

Sunday.

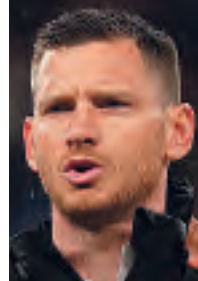

“We’re both excited – probably nervous and excited at the same time – as I’m sure the team will be. But we’re ready.

“Apart from Ferrari (Lewis Hamilton and Charles Leclerc), I don’t think there’s another team that has two drivers that push each other anywhere near as much. And for us, that’s a huge advantage.

“It’s definitely something we’ll maximise because it’s helping us beat every other team at the minute.

“But we know that as much as we work together and we have a good time and enjoy ourselves, we also know we want to try and beat each other and show who’s best. And that’s inevitable.

“So there’s no point trying to hide away from that fact or make something of it. We’re two competitors who both want to win every time we go out on to the track for a race.”

ALL OVER: Vertonghen

Ex-Spurs stopper hangs up his boots

By PAUL THOMAS

FORMER Tottenham and Belgium defender Jan Vertonghen has announced he will retire at the end of the season.

The 37-year-old plays for Belgian Pro League side Anderlecht and revealed on Tuesday he will bring the curtain down on his 19-year career when the campaign is over.

Vertonghen started his career with Dutch side Ajax, where he won the Eredivisie twice before moving to Tottenham in 2012.

The defender spent eight years in north London, making over 300 appearances, and helped the club reach the Champions League final in 2019.

After leaving Tottenham, Vertonghen joined Benfica and then Anderlecht in 2022.

“During the past weeks, months, I have been thinking a lot about how I want to continue or end my career,” Vertonghen said.

“This past time has made it clear that it will be my last games not only at Anderlecht but in my career.

Proud

“I’ve realised that it’s becoming harder and harder not only in games, but also in training to get ready physically to show what I want, to be the player I want to be.

“Not only towards the fans, to my team-mates, but mostly to myself as well.

“I’ve had the chance when I was sitting in the stands to reflect a lot and I’m so proud of what I have achieved with everyone.”

Vertonghen retired from international football after Euro 2024, having won 157 caps for Belgium.

He is now aiming for a “fantastic ending” with Anderlecht in the final stretch of the season.

“For the next 11 games, these eight to 10 weeks, I’ll try to give it my all and hopefully experience some beautiful moments together,” Vertonghen added.

“But then the journey ends and that hasn’t been an easy decision, but it’s a decision I have to take and I feel it’s the right time.

“We’ll do everything we can to make it a fantastic ending.”

TOP 20 KANE

Harry moves into world’s elite marksmen group

ENGLAND captain Harry Kane moved into the top 20 men’s international goalscorers of all time with his goal against Latvia on Monday night.

Here, Midweek Sport looks at how he compares and how far he could climb.

CURRENT STANDING

The game against Latvia was Kane’s 105th for his country and took him to 71 goals.

That lifted him from a share of 21st place on the all-time list to 18th, level with former Germany striker Miroslav Klose as well as Malawi’s Kinnah Phiri and Kiatasuk Senamuang of Thailand. Kane has played the fewest games of the quartet.

The figures exclude Vivian Woodward, who scored 75 international goals but the majority were recorded as being for England Amateurs. Were his to all be counted as official international goals, he would of course be recognised as England’s record scorer ahead of Kane.

By JOHN ANTHONY

Kane became England’s record scorer in March 2023 and is now 18 goals clear of former skipper Wayne Rooney (53).

TOP 10 TARGET

Reaching 75 goals would vault Kane into a share of 14th position, one place behind Pele who scored 77 for Brazil between 1957 and 1971.

With the top 10 scorers in men’s internationals stretching down to those with 79 goals – Brazil star Neymar and former Zambia striker Godfrey Chitalu share that ranking – the elite club will be firmly within Kane’s sights.

Since the 2017-18 campaign, coinciding with his appointment as captain, he has averaged 11.3 England appearances and 8.3 goals per season. At that rate he would be likely to crack the top 10 during the first half of 2026.

Aged 31 and having spoken of his desire to emulate Portugal star Cristiano Ronaldo by playing until the age of 40, Kane will hope he has several years to climb still higher up the chart. Ferenc Puskas ranks ninth with 84 goals, with several of the players ahead of the Hungarian still active at international level.

Poland’s Robert Lewandowski is alongside Ali Mabkhout of the United Arab Emirates on 85, with Belgium’s Romelu Lukaku sixth on 88.

Mokhtar Dahari scored 89 for Malaysia, Sunil Chhetri has 95 and counting for India and three men have scored over 100 international goals.

Ali Daei’s long-time record of 108 for Iran was overhauled by first Ronaldo and then Argentina’s Lionel Messi, who now have 136 and 112 respectively.

TOP INTERNATIONAL SCORERS

1. Cristiano Ronaldo*	Portugal	135
2. Ali Daei	Iran	109
3. Lionel Messi*	Argentina	112
4. Sunil Chhetri	India	94
5. Mokhtar Dahari	Malaysia	89
6. Ali Mabkhout*	UAE	85
= Romelu Lukaku*	Belgium	85
8. Ferenc Puskas	Hungary	84
= Rob Lewandowski*	Poland	84
10. Godfrey Chitalu	Zambia	79

Tuchel happy with spirit in Lions squad and insists there's much more to come

THOMAS Tuchel was impressed and enthused by England's effort, attitude and willingness to adapt during his winning start to life in charge.

Having been announced Sir Gareth Southgate's successor in October, the 51-year-old began work on New Year's Day and on Monday ended his first camp with two World Cup qualification victories in four days.

Tuchel admitted he wanted more after opening with a 2-0 Wembley win against obdurate Albania on Friday and England responded with flashes of quality as Latvia were overrun 3-0.

There remain plenty of kinks to iron out on the road to next year's World Cup, but the German head coach says watching them has helped him to get a greater understanding of his squad.

"We need this to learn from each other," Tuchel said. "For the first time I coach most of these players, so I need to understand how they behave, what they're like, how they behave under stress, what they do out of position, in position and out of possession and in possession.

"This is pretty normal overall and this is what I said to team. I'm very happy with the effort, the attitude and, of course, with the results because, you know, it's not a lot to win here for us.

"We expect a win, everyone expects a win from us. But you have to do it, you have to put in a lot of work.

"Against Albania we conceded, I think, 0.1 xG (expected goals), it was 0.3 (against Latvia) and it does not come by itself because you see the quality if you give any opponent space.

"Nowadays in football it can always be an early cross, it can always be difficult moments, but we reduced it to a minimum with a lot of invisible work.

"The team is ready to put the effort in and we will get stronger from camp to camp."

Rankings

England continue their World Cup qualification campaign away to Andorra in June before welcoming Senegal to Nottingham Forest's City Ground for a friendly in what should be Tuchel's toughest test since taking charge.

The West African side sit 17th in the FIFA world rankings and will be more like the level of side England could face at next year's World Cup than those they will have played up until that point.

Tuchel acknowledged the likes of Albania and Latvia, ranked 65th and 140th respectively, pose different problems to the nations they hope to face in North America, but progress is the only focus right now.

"I'm just focusing on what we have and to get the team to grow together and to build a strong group," the England boss said.

"I think we're on a good way because the players make the effort, which is the most important. The players are very proud to come to camp and play for England. This is good and from there we go.

"We cross the river when we're at the river, so first of all full focus to the qualification.

"The next one comes in June and then comes the most intense period in September, October, November, where we need to be ready and that's what we do step by step."

Reece James was pleased to put years of "struggle" behind him by scoring his first England goal.

James' career has stalled over the past few seasons after a multitude of injuries but the Chelsea defender has returned to fitness and was handed his first England start since 2022 against Latvia on Monday.

The 25-year-old celebrated as he curled in a superb free-kick.

James said: "I've been waiting for that moment for a long time. I made my debut many years ago and (I've) managed to score."

"This is the best I've felt in a long time. It means a lot more to me (playing for England). The last two and a half or three years have been a struggle."

"I've had lots of injuries and it's been tough but towards the back end of this season I've been playing consecutively and I'm happy to be back playing for my club and for my country on a regular basis."

James got the chance to impress new England boss Thomas Tuchel, who he worked with at Chelsea, but with Kyle Walker back on the scene and Trent Alexander-Arnold injured there is strong competition for places at right-back.

Healthy

"England is one of the best teams across the world, of course there is going to be competition," he added.

"It's expected, just like my club, it's nothing new, I back myself, I hope I can stay healthy and keep pushing on from here."

"Football is football to me, as I said, I've been sidelined for so long.

If I play midfield, if I play right-back, I have a job to do to help the team and perform to the best of my ability."

James was an important part of the Chelsea side that won the Champions League under Tuchel so was in familiar territory when joining up with the squad.

"He's very much the same," said James. "The same messages, the same phrases he used to say and I think the boys have enjoyed working under him in the short spell we've had together."

"We got off to a good start with two wins."

TARTAN ARMY HOPE FOR HIRST

GEORGE Hirst hopes the bitter-sweet Greece double-header proves to be the start of a long and fruitful Scotland career as he bids to cement himself in Steve Clarke's squad.

The 26-year-old Ipswich striker made his debut as a substitute in last Thursday's 1-0 victory in Greece before making his Hampden Park bow off the bench in Sunday's dismal 3-0 defeat in the return leg.

"It's been an incredible week for myself, I couldn't have enjoyed it more, to be honest," said Hirst, reflecting on his first involvement with Scotland.

"Bar the result on Sunday, it's been absolutely awesome to be a part of it and see how it works. To make my Scotland debut, it's been absolutely massive.

"I'm just really delighted to be here and I hope I can do enough at my club going forward to cement myself in the squad."

He's agreed deal with Real Madrid

TRENT Alexander-Arnold has agreed terms on a move to Real Madrid this summer - ending his 20 years at Anfield.

The Liverpool star has long been expected to swap Anfield for the Bernabeu on a free transfer when his contract expires at the end of the season, and multiple reports now say the 26-year-old has finalised a five-year contract worth more than £220,000 a week.

The England defender, who came through the ranks at Liverpool and has been at the Premier League club for more than two decades, has been able to discuss terms with overseas clubs since January.

Alexander-Arnold made his Liverpool debut as an 18-year-old in 2016.

His honours with the club include the Champions League, Premier League, FA Cup and Club World Cup and he is on course to add a second league crown this season with Arne Slot's side currently 12 points clear at the top of the table.

Alexander-Arnold is one of three key Liverpool players out of contract this summer, with the futures of Mohamed Salah and Virgil van Dijk still unclear.

Liverpool have declined to comment on the reports.
